

Year 1: Spring Term-David Attenborough-a significant individual

For the good of all through curiosity,
creativity and love

Knowledge Organiser: To develop an awareness of the lives of a significant individual

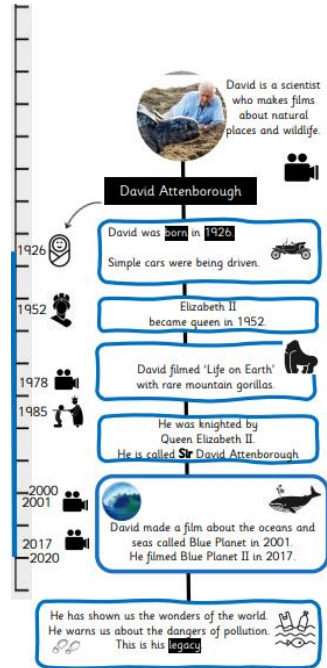

Must Haves:

- To develop an awareness of the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements.
- To understand and explain what makes a person significant.
- To discuss the ways in which we can find out about a significant individual.
- Sequence up to 3 to 4 events on a timeline beyond living memory
- Recall some facts about events that happened beyond living memory associated with the significant individual.

Key Vocabulary		What will I learn	Skills and Enquiry
Significant	Important and worth knowing about.	What makes David Attenborough a significant person?  Sir David Attenborough has introduced millions of people to a variety of animals from around the world. He is also an important climate change campaigner. What does David Attenborough do? Sir David Attenborough is a natural historian and broadcaster.	Identify sources that show how Attenborough is a significant person and how he has made an impact around the world. Create timelines to show key events in his life. Research Attenboroughs' life to ask and answer questions. Share how you have found out about the past and the impact their work has on our world today. Important People I will learn that... David Attenborough is a natural historian, writer, broadcaster and film-maker.
Significant Individual	Significant people are people who have made important achievements. They are often remembered in different ways.
Sources	Primary sources are original first-hand accounts of an event, topic, or historical period. A secondary source is a second-hand account. that interprets primary sources.
Explorer	An explorer is someone who travels to places about which very little is known, to discover what is there.
Facts	Facts are true. They are based on evidence and can be proved.
Chronology	A chronology is like a timeline: it tells what happened when.

Timeline

A timeline is a way of visually sequencing events in chronological order.

Timelines