Year 3 Spelling

Spring 1

Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6
Adverbs ending -ly (no change to root word)	Adverbs ending -ly on words ending -y	Adverbs ending -ly on words ending -le	/ch/ sound spelt 'ch' and 'tch'	/che/ ending spelt 'ture' and 'tcher'	Review and consolidation
completely quickly secretly truthfully finally usually slowly softly suddenly correctly	grumpily tidily noisily lazily fussily healthily happily greedily luckily easily	simply possibly comfortably giggly sensibly adorably horribly nobly prickly crumbly	stitch snatched catches such reaching bench hatched Itching reaching bunches	voucher researcher nurture puncture adventure butcher teacher picture capture catcher
minute, early, interest	accident / al / ly	probable / ly possible / ly	actual / ly natural	answer, February
Near Homophones: were / where	Homophones: break / brake	Homophones: main / mane	Homophones: witch / which	Homophones: were / where / wear

Spring 2

Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5
Endings on multi-syllable words ending in consonant	/j/ sound spelt /j/, /g/, /ge/ and /dge/	/zhe/ sound (e.g. pleasure, treasure, usual)	/zhun/ sound (e.g. vision, television, confusion)	Prefix re-
preferring controlled gardening listened forgetting beginning happened opener listening excelling	jumper garage strange cottage giant fudge large damage germ bridge	pleasure treasure measure leisure exposure pleasurable	television decision occasion version confusion occasion inclusion Invasion explosion	reheated re-entering reread recycling revisit reappeared replayed refreshing rerun repack recovered rewrite heard, learn	strange, important	forwards, woman, women	occasion /al / ly	build, difficult
Homophones: knot / not	Homophones: plane / plain	Homophones: bury / berry	Homophones: meet / meat	Homophones: great / grate